Subject: Extension of due date of opening of tenders in the light of COVID-19 -reg.

Government of India is taking all necessary steps to ensure that India is prepared well to face the challenge and threat posed by the growing pandemic of COVID 19 - the Corona Virus. The government has taken preventive actions and declared various directives like imposing section 144 and locking down in various parts of the country. The operations of ISP, Nasik shall also remain closed w.e.f. 23.03.2020 to 31.03.2020. It is also likely that the lock down and closure of operation may be extended further during April 2020.

2. Hence, it is intimated to all our prospective bidders who wish to participate or have already participated in our tenders scheduled to be opened during coming Tuesdays and Fridays in the month of March 2020 that the due date of opening of these tenders has been postponed/extended till further orders. The new dates, if any, and further information shall be published on the website in due course after resuming of the operations or closure of the lock down. Kindly visit our website regularly for any updates/information.
